PIANO.

The first system of musical notation is for a piano accompaniment. It consists of a grand staff with a treble and bass clef. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is 2/4. The music begins with a forte (f) dynamic. The right hand features a series of eighth-note patterns, while the left hand provides a steady bass line with some chordal support.

The second system continues the piano accompaniment. It starts with a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic. The right hand continues with eighth-note patterns, and the left hand maintains a consistent bass line with occasional chords.

The third system of musical notation continues the piano accompaniment. The right hand features a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a steady bass line with some chordal support.

The fourth system of musical notation continues the piano accompaniment. It includes a first ending bracket labeled '1.' and a second ending bracket labeled '2.'. The music ends with a forte (f) dynamic. A note below the staff reads 'After D. S. go to Trio.'.

The fifth system of musical notation continues the piano accompaniment. It features a series of chords in the right hand and a steady bass line in the left hand.
